

T. S. Dharmarajan, MD, MACP is the Vice-Chairman, Department of Medicine, Clinical Director, Division of Geriatrics and the Program Director, Geriatric Medicine Fellowship Program at Montefiore Medical Center (Wakefield Campus) Bronx, a University Hospital of Albert Einstein College of Medicine (AECOM), Bronx, New York. He is a Professor of Medicine, Albert Einstein College of Medicine and Adjunct Professor of Medicine, New York Medical College. He was formerly Professor of Medicine and Associate Dean, New York Medical College, Valhalla, New York and Chairman, Department of Medicine, at Our Lady of Mercy Medical Center, until its transition to Montefiore Medical Center.

Dr. Dharmarajan is certified by the American Boards in Internal Medicine, Nephrology and Geriatric Medicine. He is a Fellow of the American Geriatrics Society (AGSF), Master of the American College of Physicians (MACP) and Fellow, Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh (FRCPE).

Dr. Dharmarajan was instrumental in developing a reputable inpatient geriatric medicine program at Our Lady of Mercy Medical Center in the Bronx (currently Montefiore Medical Center), with clinical, academic and research components, including a fully accredited fellowship program (for 10 fellows) in Geriatrics.

Dr. Dharmarajan co-edited the textbook Clinical Geriatrics (CRC Press / Parthenon Publishing) released in 2003. His second textbook, Geriatric Gastroenterology (Springer), co-edited with CS Pitchumoni, was released in July 2012; Dr. Dharmarajan authored over 20 chapters in the book, which became a best seller in the Springer category of text books. Based on its success, he next co-edited Geriatric Gastroenterology, a Major Reference Work (Springer), a three volume, 2400 page comprehensive work, released in October 2021. His publications in peer reviewed journals and text books number exceed 200; he has over 500 scientific presentations (abstracts) in county, state, national and international meetings. He has been a Principal Investigator for several research projects, including national multi-center studies for the AMDA Foundation. He won the Howard Gutterman Award for best research project in the National Annual AMDA (2006) meeting; several abstracts were winners in county, state or national society meetings. At Montefiore, he received the first prize for best Clinical Science Paper published in 2016 and the second prize in 2019. He received a Lifetime Achievement Award at New York City in April 2019 and in the same year received Recognition for Leadership and Community Services from Montefiore at the tenth Anniversary celebrations.

Dr. Dharmarajan is a regular speaker at local, national and international meetings. Some of his many recognitions in Medicine include: "Teacher of the Year"; "Peer to Peer" recognition by the Bronx County Society; Dedication as Teacher and Mentor to young Physicians in the Bronx (from American Assn. of Physicians of Indian origin), and Unparalleled Leadership in the Medical Community for medicine and research (from the Bronx County Society). In 2013, he was featured on the cover of AgingWell magazine, as one of five noteworthy geriatricians.

Dr. Dharmarajan was the President, of the Montefiore Physician Council, Wakefield Campus for 5 years until 2015, and was a former Member of the Board of Trustees at Our Lady of Mercy Medical Center.