

New York Chapter ACP Call for Nominations

What is a Councilor expected to do?

Governance - Council members will attend three meetings of the Council/Board each year. The Council is the formal decision-making body for all policy, service and fiscal decisions for the Chapter.

Communicate with Colleagues - The Council member, working along with the District President, is the liaison between leadership and local NYACP members. It is the responsibility of the council member to communicate to local colleagues the many programs and services provided by the Chapter. The councilor will provide feedback to the NYACP Council/Board on membership needs and emerging issues. All activities are supported by Chapter staff.

Promote Membership - Councilors are asked to become more involved in membership recruitment and retention.

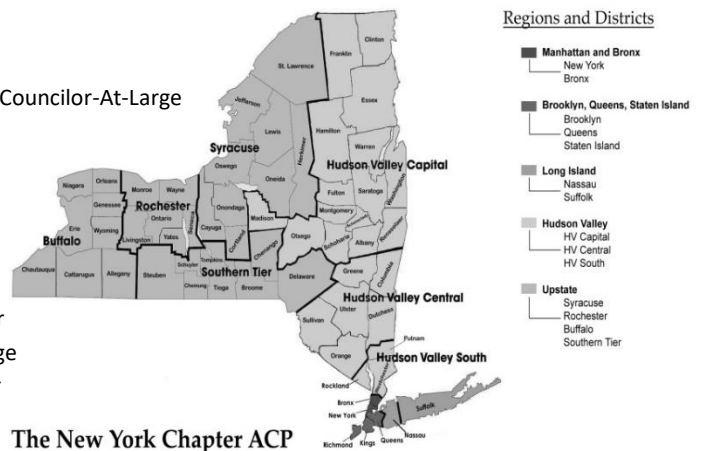

Educational Planning - Councilors work with the District President to assist with local events, encourage member participation, and support the local internal medicine community.

7 open council seats - New Councilors will serve a three-year term on the Council/Board from April 2022-April 2025. See Regional/District map below.
