

VIRTUAL EVENT

How to Find Your Professional Niche Does it Matter, and Can it be Changed?

Hosted by the NYACP Early Career Physicians Committee

Thursday, August 14, 2025

5:00 PM - 6:00 PM

Join members of the Chapter's Early Career Physicians and discover how to identify your professional niche, understand its value, and learn how to confidently pivot as your career evolves.

Get insight and resources for:

• Self-Discovery:

Reflecting on your interests, values, and strengths to identify a niche that aligns with your personal and professional goals.

• Clarifying Importance:

Explore why having a niche matters—such as improving job satisfaction, building a personal brand, and increasing opportunities for advancement.

• Flexibility & Growth:

Niches are not fixed; they can evolve over time as careers grow and interests shift.

• Practical Strategies:

Get actionable steps on how to explore different areas, test potential niches, and pivot when needed.

Moderator:

Danielle Kochen, MD

Assistant Professor of Internal Medicine at Upstate Medical University

Panelists:

Vasundhara Singh, MD, FACP:

Associate Professor of Medicine and Medical Education, APD of Internal Medicine Residency at Icahn SOM at Mount Sinai.

Evan Siau, MD, FACP:

Clinical Assistant Professor, Division of Hospital Medicine at NYU Grossman SOM. Chair NYACP Climate Change Task Force.

Jenny Shen, MD:

Academic Hospitalist at Strong Memorial Hospital, Medical Director for Geriatric Fracture Program.

- Encouragement & Inspiration:

Pursue a path that fits you—whether traditional or non-traditional. You will learn from real examples of successful niche shifts!

Neelanjana Pandey, MD:

Attending Hospitalist at BronxCare Health System

Mark your calendar for the September NYACP Early Career Physician Webinar:

- Part 4: September 11, 2025 - Career Development and Leadership-
Register Here

Miss Parts 1 and 2?

You can view them on the Chapters Recorded Webinar page!